

Support for democracy in a slump across Americas, according to new survey | Research News @ Vanderbilt

<https://news.vanderbilt.edu/2019/10/14/support-for-democracy-in-a-slump-across-americas-according-to-new-survey/>

Democracy is struggling for support in the Americas, according to the 2018/19 AmericasB democratic system is working in their country about social media use and looked at the relationship between social media use and political beliefs.

“There’s no question social media will have an effect on politics in the region, but our survey results suggest that the effect is a mixed one.”

In Latin America and the Caribbean, nearly two in three adults (64.4 percent) use WhatsApp, while 56.2 percent use Facebook. Twitter is used less often (less than 8 percent use Twitter). The typical msocial useei n l percen